

Holzer Assisted Living – Jackson

Holzer Assisted Living is a full service assisted living care facility in Jackson, offering a premier experience, and an excellent array of needed services. These include three different styles of suites, nursing 24 hours a day, personal care services, therapy services, hospice services, incontinence care, an emergency call system and much more.

Charlie Russell has been a resident there since 2002. He was born with developmental problems and has required assistance for years. His family has helped him gain access to several developmental programs, despite only a few being available locally. He has been in residential centers in Tennessee, Kansas, and Ohio. These include Coal Grove Special Ed Programs, Open Door School in Ironton, Tri-State Industries and others. His family has spared no effort to give him the best of care and opportunities.

Charlie currently resides in Holzer Assisted Care – Jackson. His sister, Jane Smith, is his guardian and has tirelessly tried to ensure he has the best of care.

At Holzer, he has kind nurses, personal care, assistance with medication and health needs. He is very well taken care of according to his sister.

Despite problems, Jane feels Charlie has the least restrictive environment and is as independent as his health problems allow. She says Holzer has simplified many problems, and given her peace of mind about Charlie. He has occasionally spent a week or two at her home, but says he wants to stay at Holzer. His sister feels he has as much freedom as is possible. Despite Stage Three kidney failure (now stable), Charlie is happy at Holzer.

Jane Smith has done a magnificent job of caring for Charlie despite what must have been very difficult times. She says, “Holzer has been a real blessing to her family” and “the Holzer family has been very important to me” and she would not have known what to do without them.
